

SCREENING OF AWARD-WINNING FILM

Of Sound Mind and Body: Music and Vibrational Healing with Producer, Jeff Volk

Winner of the Hartley Film Award
through the Institute of Noetic Sciences

This compelling and evocative documentary explores the myriad ways in which music, sound and vibration influence every aspect of our being. Artfully portrayed interviews, demonstrations and performances with leaders in the fields of complimentary and energy medicine, blend with vividly beautiful imagery and lush soundscapes to create a truly healing experience— while conveying a wealth of information about this rapidly evolving field. Highlights of this 72-min. program include interviews with Deepak Chopra, Bernie Siegel, Jill Purce, Steven Halpern, Kay Gardner, Rupert Sheldrake and Jonathan Goldman, amongst many others— plus an awe-inspiring segment demonstrating audible sound frequencies animating powders, pastes and liquids into life-like flowing forms (Cymatics). This program features many types of therapeutic techniques that stem from antiquity, yet continue to be adapted to help alleviate the stressful effects of our high-speed lifestyles.
